Cue Stick on the Table

Rule 6.12 – If the shooter uses his cue stick in order to align a shot by placing it on the table without having a hand on the stick, it is a foul.

Intentionally Marking the Table can result in an Unsportsmanlike Conduct Foul (Rule 6.16 (f))

Intentionally marking the table is not acceptable. We realize that not all marks that find their way on the table are intentional. Therefore, shooters should not intentionally mark the table. Shooters should also ensure they take the time to remove any unintentional marks that may be made while lining up a shot and may be interpreted as intentional. Removing the mark should prevent any arguments on determining if the mark was intentional.

Envelopes must be at the Intersection no later than 6pm on Wednesday
